National Disabled Soldiers League Charges Benefit Money Was Used to Buy Whiskey.

Charges that money collected for the welfare of wounded overseas veterans had been spent for whiskey, and that the proceeds of a benefit performance at the Shubert-Belasco Theater on June 2 had not been given up to the national officers, were made today, in Justice Hitz's division of the District Court, at a hearing on a petition for a restraining order filed by the National Dis-abled Soldiers' League, Inc., of New York, against the league in this city.
